

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Today's Gospel passage opens with a very important moment in the life of Jesus. "As the time drew near for him to be taken up into heaven, Jesus resolutely took the road for Jerusalem." These opening words of today's Gospel indicate that we are moving into the second phase of Jesus' public life and the second half of this gospel. For Luke, Jerusalem is the focal point of Jesus' life. It is the centre from which Jesus' great redemptive work unfolds. It is there that the disciples will form a new community to continue the work of Jesus and from Jerusalem it will spread to every corner of the world.

We come now to what is really the core of today's Mass theme – our response to Jesus calling us to join him. As Jesus makes his way to Jerusalem (and all that that will mean for him), a number of people express a desire to join him. Obviously – like many of us – they do not fully understand just precisely what "going to Jerusalem" really means for Jesus and those who go with him. We can look with profit at these three people because one or more of them represents me. One needs to be aware of what is expected of a disciple. One must be ready to let go of people and things, of all strings and attachments, of all external securities and props. Am I ready for this? Or do I set up my securities first and then, carrying them with me, decide to follow him?

More tears are shed over answered prayers than unanswered ones.
St. Teresa of Avila

Vocation

Jesus still speaks the invitation "Follow Me." Pray for the strength and the grace of discernment if you feel He is calling you to be an ordained or consecrated person. If you think God is calling you to be a priest, contact Fr. Michael King, Vocation Director, Diocese of Hamilton 905-528-7988 email vocations@hamiltondiocese.com

Pre-baptismal Preparation (a one-hour meeting) is required and is available to parents after they register their child for baptism (pick up envelope at back of church on rack). These meetings are friendly gatherings helping parents to learn more how to accompany their children in passing on their faith. If child care is an issue, parents may bring their children. Godparents may attend but their presence is not mandatory.

Nocturnal Adoration is held every first Saturday of the month from 9:00 – 10:00 p.m. here at St. Teresa Parish. Please join us and spread the word.

Healing Mass is held on every first Friday of the month at 7:00 p.m.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

The Eucharist is the centre and origin of the life of the Church. Therefore, exposition of the Blessed Sacrament in our church (Divine Mercy Chapel) is taking place from Monday to Friday from 9:00 am – 9:00 pm. We would like to invite our parishioners to sign up for adoration and dedicate at least one hour a week to be with Jesus and nourish our spiritual life. "If you are passing before a Church, enter to greet our Lord. Could you pass the door of a friend without saying hello?" St. John Vianney.

Prayer Shawl Ministry - we have prayer shawls available. If you would like one or know someone who needs one please contact the parish office. These shawls are made with prayer and love and have been blessed by our parish priests.

Parish BBQ

Thank you to the pastoral council for leading and for organizing the parish bbq which took place on Saturday, June 22nd. We would also like to express our gratitude to our volunteers and sponsors of our fund raiser bbq. This event generated $2,795.80(will confirm what the expenses were for this event). Special thank you goes out to the 'Four Corners Group' which did such a great job entertaining, not just older but the younger generation. We were very blessed with many generous sponsors, who purchased salads, ice cream, beer and wine and tents for us. It is a wonderful sign of solidarity with our parish community, especially at the time of our needs when we have to repair the roof of the parish centre, take down two chimney's and seal the roofs.

Prayer Vigil - Thursday, July 4th from 9:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. in front of Freeport Hospital, 3570 King St. E., Kitchener, for babies being aborted. All are welcome to pray quietly for those who have no voice, but our own! Parking - across the road, Schneider Park. Any queries, please contact Cathy at: kwc.prayervigil@rogers.com

Baby Bottle Campaign by Marillac Place

Father's Day has past. Please return your baby bottles at the back of the church. Marillac Place relies heavily on these donations from our community to keep their doors open. Please support this important cause by returning your baby bottle filled with your donation as soon as possible.
