

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

As Jesus enters a village in today's gospel (Luke 17:11-19), He is greeted by ten lepers who come out to meet Him. "They stood some way off." As lepers they were compelled to cry out "unclean" and to ring a bell when they saw people approaching. Still some distance from Jesus they called out in desperation: "Jesus! Master! Take pity on us!" They had no illusions about their helpless situation. Jesus simply tells them to "Go and show yourselves to the priests". On their way to carry out this instruction they discovered that they were cleansed and healed. Clearly this was a reward for their unquestioning and trusting response to Jesus' instructions.

And why did Jesus tell them to go to the priests? Because it was not enough for them to be healed; they would also have to be officially declared clean by the religious authorities. Only then could they be fully integrated back into "normal" society.

Yet, after they were cured, it was not the members of God's chosen people who came back to express thanks to their Lord but this outcast... Jesus highlights this fact by His own reaction. "Were not all ten made clean? The other nine, where are they?" Yes, we all need, with the Samaritan, to be cleansed, to be healed, to be made whole of all the toxic substances in our system which distort our relationships and the way we see those around us.

Thanksgiving Day is a perfect day to share the love and companionship of family and friends at the Thanksgiving table. Many of us experience renewed hope and faith during the Thanksgiving holiday because we turn our eyes onto what is most important. What if we spent time each day in giving thanks and prayer? How could God grow in us through faith and trust if we lived a life of thanks through all seasons and not just Thanksgiving time? You are invited to say this thanksgiving prayer with your entire family as you have your meal:

O Heavenly Father:

We thank You for food and remember the hungry.

We thank You for health and remember the sick.

We thank You for friends and remember the friendless.

We thank You for freedom and remember the enslaved.

May these remembrances stir us to service. That Your gifts to us may be used for others. Amen.

Dear Parishioners,

As we celebrate this special time, I would like to thank you for your prayers, kindness and support! May your blessings be multiplied this year and throughout all your life. May the best things in life be yours, not only this Thanksgiving but throughout the years.

Happy Thanksgiving wishes to All of you!
