

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel we see Jesus entering Jericho and passing through it. "A man was there named Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was rich. He was trying to see who Jesus Was...." So many times, in the Gospel, we see Jesus passing by or through a place. If He is not stopped, He will keep going. Similarly, He constantly passes through our lives. He comes every day in one form or another. He will come into my life today. Will I recognize Him? Where am I expecting to find Him? In what person? In what place? In what experience? To be really ready, I have to be prepared to meet Him in any experience. Zacchaeus in order to see Jesus did not hesitate to climb a tree to get a better look. Imagine Zacchaeus' surprise when Jesus looked up and said, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down; for I must stay at your house today." What wonderful words for Zacchaeus to hear! How wonderful when Jesus says them to us! Are we ready to offer Him hospitality?

"To have courage for whatever comes in life - everything lies in that."
St. Teresa of Ávila
